Quotes and Realities

In God We Trust

"My slanderers pursue me all day long; many are attacking me in their pride. When I am afraid, I will trust in you [God]. In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust; I will not be afraid. What can mortal man do to me?... For you have delivered me from death and my feet from stumbling [for those who follow you], that I may walk before God in the light of life."

- Psalm 56:2-4, 13 (NIV)

US House of Representatives - Judiciary Committee Report

"What is an establishment of religion? It must have a creed defining what a man must believe; it must have rites and ordinances which believers must observe; it must have ministers of defined qualifications to teach the doctrines and administer the rites; it must have tests for the submissive and penalties for the nonconformist. There never was an established religion without all these.... Had the people, during the Revolution, had a suspicion of any attempt to war against Christianity, that Revolution would have been strangled in its cradle. At the time of the adoption of the Constitution and the amendments, the universal sentiment was that Christianity should be encouraged, not any one sect [denomination]. Any attempt to level and discard all religion would have been viewed with universal indignation.... It [religion] must be considered as the foundation on which the whole structure rests.... In this age there can be no substitute for Christianity; that, in its general principles, is the great conservative element on which we must rely for the purity and permanence of free institutions. That was the religion of the founders of the republic, and they expected it to remain the religion of their descendents." - 1853-1854

Nicholson, 1854), 1,6,8-9.

Have you ever read the Constitution and wondered “what were the Founders intentions behind this or that phrase?” The US Constitution in the Resources section contains online references to the Federalist Papers – an early work by three founding fathers on the intention of each section of the US Constitution. But, if you are looking for something more lively, you could turn to the records of the continental congress link in the Resources section, under Congressional Records, or Elliot's or Farrand's records of the debates, or read about the intentions in the more personalized correspondence, writings and letters of the founders.

About ?

Are you wondering “what is Biblical Christian Solutions in Government (BCSIG)”?

In short we are very similar to Founding Father Alexander Hamilton's Christian Constitutional Society.

Hamilton formed the society to elect people to office who would support the Christian religion, and the US Constitution.

In a similar way our ultimate vision is to advocate for, defend, and advance Biblical ideological values in law, public policy, and culture. We seek to do this through education, lobbying, and as a secondary purpose (and as a primary purpose of a future sponsored sister organization) through identifying candidates who:

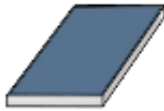

follow Jesus and have a Biblical Christian worldview;

support, with integrity, the Declaration of Independence and the US Constitution; and understand, will apply, and support God's law, word, and purpose as the rightful foundation for the content of all law, government, justice, and liberty.
