Quotes and Realities

God's Loving Response To Our Sin

"Surely the arm of the LORD is not too short to save, nor his ear too dull to hear. But your iniquities [sin, evil] have separated you from your God; your sins have hidden his face from you, so that he will not hear. For your hands are stained with blood, your fingers with guilt. Your lips have spoken lies, and your tongue mutters wicked things. No one calls for justice; no one pleads his case with integrity. They rely on empty arguments and speak lies; they conceive trouble and give birth to evil.... ...so his own arm worked salvation for him, and his own righteousness sustained him...."

Joseph Story

"Probably at the time of the adoption of the Constitution, and of the amendment to it now under consideration [the first amendment], the general if not the universal sentiment in America was, that Christianity out to receive encouragement from the state so far as was not incompatible with the private rights of conscience and the freedom of religious worship. An attempt to level all religions, and to make it a matter of state policy to hold all in utter indifference, would have created universal disapprobation [condemnation], if not universal indignation [outrage]. It yet remains a problem to be solved in human affairs, whether any free government can be permanent where the public worship of God and the support of religion constitute no part of the policy or duty of the state in any assignable shape."

- Joseph Story: Attorney; Jurist, Educator; U.S. Representative, appointed to U.S. Supreme Court by President James Madison, helped revive Harvard School of Law as the first Dane Professor of Law, along with Chancellor James Kent is known as "Father of American Jurisprudence."

Highlight

Have you ever read the Constitution and wondered “what were the Founders intentions behind this or that phrase?” The US Constitution in the Resources section contains online references to the Federalist Papers – an early work by three founding fathers on the intention of each section of the US Constitution. But, if you are looking for something more lively, you could turn to the records of the continental congress link in the Resources section, under Congressional Records, or Elliot's or Farrand's records of the debates, or read about the intentions in the more personalized correspondence, writings and letters of the founders.

About

Are you wondering “what is Biblical Christian Solutions in Government (BCSIG)”?

In short we are very similar to Founding Father Alexander
Hamilton's Christian Constitutional Society.

Hamilton formed the society to elect people to office who would support the Christian religion, and the US Constitution.

In a similar way our ultimate vision is to advocate for, defend, and advance Biblical ideological values in law, public policy, and culture. We seek to do this through education, lobbying, and as a secondary purpose (and as a primary purpose of a future sponsored sister organization) through identifying candidates who:

follow Jesus and have a Biblical Christian worldview;

support, with integrity, the Declaration of Independence and the US Constitution; and understand, will apply, and support God's law, word, and purpose as the rightful foundation for the content of all law, government, justice, and liberty.

Resources

Like a good box of tools and a manual can help you understand and then work to accomplish a task, so too the resources in this section can help shed light or give information on a number of issues.

Some links of interest may be:

reading the Bible;

writings of Founding Fathers which, among other things, point out why it was - and is - central to encourage and have the Bible taught as the cornerstone of our society, central for justice and liberty, and why government does not last without God's word and principles, etc.;

you will find early and current records of Congress; and you will find links to other Organizations, with similar goals, and their resources.
