Quotes and Realities

Jesus - God the One and Only - Gives Eternal Life

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made. In him was life, and that life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, but the darkness has not understood it.... He was in the world, and though the world was made through him, the world did not recognize him.... to all who received him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God.... The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us.... From the fullness of his grace we have all received one blessing after another. For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God, but God the One and Only, who is at the Father's side, has made him known."

- John 1:1-5,10,12,14,16-18 (NIV)

Benjamin Rush

"I proceed in the next place, to enquire, what mode of education we shall adopt so as to secure to the state all the advantages that are to be derived from the proper instruction of youth; and here I beg leave to remark, that the only foundation for a useful education in a republic is to be laid in Religion. Without this there can be no virtue, and without virtue there can be no liberty, and liberty is the object and life of all republican governments.... ..the religion I mean to recommend in this place, is that of the New Testament.... ..all its doctrines and precepts are calculated to promote the happiness of society, and the safety and well being of civil government...."

- Benjamin Rush: Educator; Signer of the Declaration of Independence, Surgeon-General of the Continental Army, co-founder of Dickinson College, influential delegate to Pennsylvania state convention for the ratification of the U. S. Federal Constitution, co-author of the Pennsylvania Constitution, Treasurer of the U.S. Mint, Founder and Vice-President of the Philadelphia Bible Society, Founder and President of the Pennsylvania

Society for Promoting the Abolition of Slavery, member of the Abolition Society.

Quoted from: Rush, Benjamin, Essays Literary, Moral, Philosophical: Of the mode of Education Proper in a Republic (Philadelphia, Pennsylvania: Thomas and William Bradford, 1806), 8.

Highlight

Have you ever read the Constitution and wondered “what were the Founders intentions behind this or that phrase?” The US Constitution in the Resources section contains online references to the Federalist Papers – an early work by three founding fathers on the intention of each section of the US Constitution. But, if you are looking for something more lively, you could turn to the records of the continental congress link in the Resources section, under Congressional Records, or Elliot's or Farrand's records of the debates, or read about the intentions in the more personalized correspondence, writings and letters of the founders.

About ?

Are you wondering “what is Biblical Christian Solutions in Government (BCSIG)”?

In short we are very similar to Founding Father Alexander
Hamilton's Christian Constitutional Society.

Hamilton formed the society to elect people to office who would support the Christian religion, and the US Constitution.

In a similar way our ultimate vision is to advocate for, defend, and advance Biblical ideological values in law, public policy, and culture. We seek to do this through education, lobbying, and as a secondary purpose (and as a primary purpose of a future sponsored sister organization) through identifying candidates who:

follow Jesus and have a Biblical Christian worldview;

support, with integrity, the Declaration of Independence and the US Constitution; and understand, will apply, and support God's law, word, and purpose as the rightful foundation for the content of all law, government, justice, and liberty.

If you are not using a mobile browser, you can access the latest news in the side block.

Because News is RSS syndicated, many times articles that would be more permanent will be published under News, and at a later date be moved into the Articles section.

Are you wondering “where did that News article go?” Older News articles are still available in the News Archive.

Resources

Like a good box of tools and a manual can help you understand and then work to accomplish a task, so too the resources in this section can help shed light or give information on a number of issues.

Some links of interest may be:

reading the Bible;

writings of Founding Fathers which, among other things, point out why it was - and is - central to encourage and have the Bible taught as the cornerstone of our society, central for justice and liberty, and why government does not last without God's word and principles, etc.;

you will find early and current records of Congress;

and you will find links to other Organizations, with similar goals, and their resources.
