

About Biblical Christian Solutions In Government

Biblical Christian Solutions In Government is very similar to Founding Father Alexander Hamilton's Christian Constitutional Society.

Hamilton proposed the society in a letter to James Bayard in April of 1802 ¹ and, according to author and historian David Barton, Hamilton formed the society ² to elect people to office who would support the Christian religion, and the US Constitution.

In a similar way our ultimate vision is to engage in education, lobbying, and identifying and supporting candidates who have a Biblical Christian worldview and will understand and apply God's Law and word as the rightful basis of government and law – without which there can be no true justice or society free from oppression.

Biblical Christian Solutions In Government looks to do this through:

1. Advocating for Biblically shaped sound solutions through education

This includes, but is not limited to, offering education concerning Biblical principles and God's word applied to government, law, justice, administration, public policy, culture, and God's purpose in the world.

2. Advocating for Biblically shaped sound solutions through lobbying.

This includes, but is not limited to, lobbying and advocating for Biblical principles and Biblically sound solutions, from God's word, in law, public policy, and in culture.

3. Actively seeking those who will serve the people out of a true relationship with God through the Biblical Jesus; who see the world through the view of God's word; who seek God's word as the authority for life; and who honor God in serving the people of their city, state and the United States of America.

This includes, but is not limited to, establishing, sustaining, and developing a movement that identifies candidates for public office who have a Biblical worldview, and are (and will be):

1. Followers of Jesus Christ that have a Biblical Christian worldview;
2. Will support, with integrity, the Declaration of Independence and the US Constitution; and
3. Will understand, apply, and support God's law, word (the Bible), and purpose as the rightful foundation for the content of all law, government, justice, and liberty.

Note: The association is legally able to accomplish the service component as a secondary purpose only. In the future we seek to encourage the existence of a sponsored sister organization that will be able to address the service component as a primary purpose.

“Providence has given to our people the choice of their rulers, and it is the duty, as well as the privilege and interest of our Christian nation, to select and prefer Christians for their rulers.”

John Jay: Attorney, Diplomat, Jurist; member of the Continental Congress where he was President of Congress; helped write the New York State constitution; Chief Justice of New York Supreme Court; co-authored, along with Alexander Hamilton and James Madison, the Federalist Papers - which were instrumental in securing the ratification of the federal Constitution; appointed first Chief Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court by President George Washington; Governor of New York; Vice-President and then President of the American Bible Society; member of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions

Quoted from: Barton, David, Original Intent: The Courts, the Constitution, and Religion (Aledo, TX: Wallbuilder Press, 2010), 350; originally quoted from Jay, William, The Life of John Jay (New York: J. and J. Harper, 1833), Vol. II, 376, to John Murray, Jr., October 12 1816.

“... there is no authority except that which God has established. The authorities that exist have been established by God.... For rulers hold no terror for those who do right, but for those who do wrong... For he is God's servant to do you good... He is God's servant, an agent of wrath to bring punishment on the wrongdoer.... This is why you pay taxes, for the authorities are God's servants, who give their full time to governing.”

- Romans 13: 1b, 13: 3a, 13: 4, 13: 6 (NIV)

It is ludicrous for those who understand God's word and Law from the Bible to be the furthest away from serving humanity in this ministry of God – called government.

1 Quoted from: Barton, David, Original Intent: The Courts, the Constitution, and Religion (Aledo, TX: Wallbuilder Press, 2010), 146; originally quoted from Hamilton, Alexander, The Papers of Alexander Hamilton, edited by Syrett, Harold C. (New York: Columbia University Press, 1977), Vol. XXV, 605-610, to James Bayard, April 16-21 1802.

2 Quoted from: Barton, David, The Practical Benefits of Christianity (Aledo, TX: Wallbuilder Press, 2001), 9.

“Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, Religion and Morality are indispensable supports. - In vain would that man claim the tribute of patriotism, who should labor to subvert these great pillars of human happiness, these firmest props of the duties of men and citizens.

- The mere Politician, equally with the pious man, ought to respect and to cherish them. -

A volume could not trace all their connections with private and public felicity [rightness, happiness]. Let it simply be asked where is the security for property, for reputation, for life, if the sense of religious obligation desert the oaths, which are the instruments of investigation in courts of justice? And let us with caution indulge the supposition, that morality can be maintained without religion.”

Quoted from: Photographic facsimile of George Washington's Farewell Address. From George Washington Papers at the Library of Congress 1741-1799 collection.

We believe these are the major key in systematically moving our government and culture toward its rightful foundation on God's Law, God's word, and God's will (being one in the same). It is right for those who know God to be his ambassadors in society (2 Corinthians 5: 20). This is true whether it is among the ministry of God in a family, among the ministry of God in the mission of the Church, and among the ministry of God in Government. Advocacy and service in these ways ultimately brings fulfillment to society and people's lives, by placing God's structures on their rightful foundation of his word and purpose of redeeming some from each ethnic group.

This association does not exist without people, like you, who choose to associate for the common goals of Biblical Christian Solutions In Government.

Will you consider being a part, making these goals your vision, and of advancing this vision to reality?

Please visit www.bcsig.org for more information. Thank You for your consideration.

Note: At the present time gifts are not being collected for or used in political campaigning. Due to the nature of our work, gifts are not tax-deductible for income tax purposes.