Quotes and Realities

God's Loving Response To Our Sin

"Surely the arm of the LORD is not too short to save, nor his ear too dull to hear. But your iniquities [sin, evil] have separated you from your God; your sins have hidden his face from you, so that he will not hear. For your hands are stained with blood, your fingers with guilt. Your lips have spoken lies, and your tongue mutters wicked things. No one calls for justice; no one pleads his case with integrity. They rely on empty arguments and speak lies; they conceive trouble and give birth to evil.... ...so his own arm worked salvation for him, and his own righteousness sustained him...." Thomas Jefferson

"2. On every question of construction, carry ourselves back to the time when the constitution was adopted, recollect the spirit manifested in the debates, [and] instead of trying what meaning may be squeezed out of the text, or invented against it, conform to the probable one in which it was past...."

- Thomas Jefferson: Attorney, Diplomat, Educator; member of Continental Congress, signer and principle author of the Declaration of Independence, Governor of Virginia, Secretary of State under George Washington, Vice-President under John Adams, third President of the United States, founded the University of Virginia.

Welcome

Highlight

Have you ever read the Constitution and wondered “what were the Founders intentions behind this or that phrase?” The US Constitution in the Resources section contains online references to the Federalist Papers – an early work by three founding fathers on the intention of each section of the US Constitution. But, if you are looking for something more lively, you could turn to the records of the continental congress link in the Resources section, under Congressional Records, or Elliot's or Farrand's records of the debates, or read about the intentions in the more personalized correspondence, writings and letters of the founders.

About

Are you wondering “what is Biblical Christian Solutions in Government (BCSIG)”?

In short we are very similar to Founding Father Alexander
Hamilton's Christian Constitutional Society.

Hamilton formed the society to elect people to office who would support the Christian religion, and the US Constitution.

In a similar way our ultimate vision is to advocate for, defend, and advance Biblical ideological values in law, public policy, and culture. We seek to do this through education, lobbying, and as a secondary purpose (and as a primary purpose of a future sponsored sister organization)
through identifying candidates who:

follow Jesus and have a Biblical Christian worldview;

support, with integrity, the Declaration of Independence and the US Constitution; and understand, will apply, and support God's law, word, and purpose as the rightful foundation for the content of all law, government, justice, and liberty.

Articles

Click here to read Articles on a wide range of topics all surrounding the general topics of:

a Biblical Christian worldview,

Government,

History,

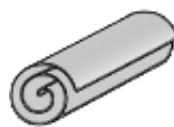

Law,

Vision,

and applying God's word, plan, and purpose in the world as revealed and referenced in his word – the Bible.

If you are not using a mobile browser, you can access the latest news in the side block.

Because News is RSS syndicated, many times articles that would be more permanent will be published under News, and at a later date be moved into the Articles section.

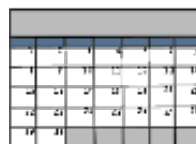

Are you wondering “where did that News article go?” Older News articles are still available in the News Archive.

Resources

Events

Like a good box of tools and a manual can help you understand and then work to accomplish a task, so too the resources in this section can help shed light or give information on a number of issues.

Some links of interest may be:

reading the Bible;

writings of Founding Fathers which, among other things, point out why it was - and is - central to encourage and have the Bible taught as the cornerstone of our society, central for justice and liberty, and why government does not last without God's word and principles, etc.;

you will find early and current records of Congress;

and you will find links to other Organizations, with similar goals, and their resources.

Wondering what upcoming events might be in the works? Click the events icon for the event calendar.

If you are not using a mobile browser, you can also access the event list from a miniature version of the event calendar in the side block.

The Events are also RSS syndicated, so you can have the event list on your favorite desktop, device, etc. RSS reader.

Involvement

The involvement section offers opportunities to defend liberty, and advance Biblical Christian solutions in public policy and in the life of our culture.
