Quotes and Realities

God Our Refuge And Strength

"God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, though the earth give way and the mountains fall into the heart of the sea, though its waters roar and foam and the mountains quake with their surging.... Come and see the works of the Lord, the desolations he has brought on the earth. He makes wars cease to the ends of the earth; he breaks the bow and shatters the spear, he burns the shields with fire. 'Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.' "

- Psalm 46:1-3, 8-10 (NIV)

Judicial Abuse - It doesn't really affect liberty or does it?

"The court will allow that prayer to be a typical nondenominational prayer, which can refer to God or the Almighty.... The prayer must not refer to... Jesus.... And make no mistake, the Court is going to have a United States marshal in attendance at the graduation. If any student offends this court, that student will be summarily arrested and will face up to six months incarceration.... Anybody who violates these orders... is going to wish that he or she had died as a child when this court gets through with it."

Quoted from: Wallbuilders Spring 2007 newsletter. Doe v. Santa Fe Indep. Sch. Dist, Civil Action No. G-95-176 (S.D. Tex. 1995) (court transcription of verbal ruling by federal judge Samuel Kent, pp. 3-4)

Highlight

Have you ever read the Constitution and wondered “what were the Founders intentions behind this or that phrase?” The US Constitution in the Resources section contains online references to the Federalist Papers – an early work by three founding fathers on the intention of each section of the US Constitution. But, if you are looking for something more lively, you could turn to the records of the continental congress link in the Resources section, under Congressional Records, or Elliot's or Farrand's records of the debates, or read about the intentions in the more personalized correspondence, writings and letters of the founders.

About

Are you wondering “what is Biblical Christian Solutions in Government (BCSIG)”?

In short we are very similar to Founding Father Alexander Hamilton's Christian Constitutional Society.

Hamilton formed the society to elect people to office who would support the Christian religion, and the US Constitution.

In a similar way our ultimate vision is to advocate for, defend, and advance Biblical ideological values in law, public policy, and culture. We seek to do this through education, lobbying, and as a secondary purpose (and as a primary purpose of a future sponsored sister organization) through identifying candidates who:

follow Jesus and have a Biblical Christian worldview;

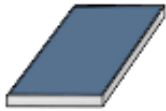

support, with integrity, the Declaration of Independence and the US Constitution; and understand, will apply, and support God's law, word, and purpose as the rightful foundation for the content of all law, government, justice, and liberty.
