Quotes and Realities

Jesus

"Therefore everyone who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock.... But everyone who hears these words of mine and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man who built his house on sand. The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell with a great crash."

- Matthew 7:24, 26-27 (NIV)

John Jay

"Providence has given to our people the choice of their rulers, and it is the duty, as well as the privilege and interest of our Christian nation, to select and prefer Christians for their rulers."

- John Jay: Attorney, Diplomat, Jurist; member of the Continental Congress where he was President of Congress; helped write the New York State constitution; Chief Justice of New York Supreme Court; co-authored, along with Alexander Hamilton and James Madison, the Federalist Papers - which were instrumental in securing the ratification of the federal Constitution; appointed first Chief Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court by President George Washington; Governor of New York; Vice-President and then President of the American Bible Society; member of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions

Quoted from: Barton, David, Original Intent: The Courts, the Constitution, and Religion (Aledo, TX: Wallbuilder Press, 2010), 350; originally quoted from Jay, William, The Life of John Jay (New York: J. and J. Harper, 1833), Vol. II, 376, to John Murray, Jr., October 12 1816.

Highlight

Have you ever read the Constitution and wondered “what were the Founders intentions behind this or that phrase?” The US Constitution in the Resources section contains online references to the Federalist Papers – an early work by three founding fathers on the intention of each section of the US Constitution. But, if you are looking for something more lively, you could turn to the records of the continental congress link in the Resources section, under Congressional Records, or Elliot's or Farrand's records of the debates, or read about the intentions in the more personalized correspondence, writings and letters of the founders.

About

Are you wondering “what is Biblical Christian Solutions in Government (BCSIG)”?

In short we are very similar to Founding Father Alexander
Hamilton's Christian Constitutional Society.

Hamilton formed the society to elect people to office who would support the Christian religion, and the US Constitution.

In a similar way our ultimate vision is to advocate for, defend,
and advance Biblical ideological values in law, public policy, and culture. We seek to do this through education, lobbying, and as a secondary purpose (and as a primary purpose of a future
sponsored sister organization)
through identifying candidates who:

follow Jesus and have a Biblical

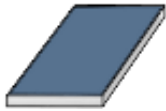

Christian worldview;

support, with integrity, the Declaration of Independence and the US Constitution; and understand, will apply, and support God's law, word, and purpose as the rightful foundation for the content of all law, government, justice, and liberty.

Articles

Click here to read Articles on a wide range of topics all surrounding the general topics of:

a Biblical Christian worldview,

Government,

History,

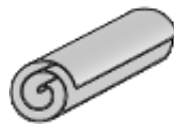

Law,

Vision,

and applying God's word, plan, and purpose in the world as revealed and referenced in his word – the Bible.

If you are not using a mobile browser, you can access the latest news in the side block.

Because News is RSS syndicated, many times articles that would be more permanent will be published under News, and at a later date be moved into the Articles section.

Are you wondering “where did that News article go?” Older News articles are still available in the News Archive.

Resources

Like a good box of tools and a manual can help you understand and then work to accomplish a task, so too the resources in this section can help shed light or give information on a number of issues.

Some links of interest may be:

reading the Bible;

writings of Founding Fathers which, among other things, point out why it was - and is - central to encourage and have the Bible taught as the cornerstone of our society, central for justice and liberty, and why government does not last without God's word and principles, etc.;

you will find early and current records of Congress;

and you will find links to other Organizations, with similar goals, and their resources.
