Quotes and Realities

Trust In God - He Is Our Refuge

"My salvation and my honor depend on God; he is my mighty rock, my refuge. Trust in him at all times, O people; pour out your hearts to him, for God is our refuge. Selah [possibly meaning reflect or consider] Lowborn men are but a breath, the highborn are but a lie; if weighed on a balance, they are nothing; together they are only a breath. Do not trust in extortion or take pride in stolen goods; though your riches increase, do not set your heart on them. One thing God has spoken, two things have I heard: that you, O God, are strong, and that you O Lord, are loving...."

- Psalm 62:7-11a (NIV)

Sir William Blackstone

"Man, considered as a creature, must necessarily be subject to the laws of his Creator, for he is entirely a dependent being.... he should in all points conform to his Maker's will. This will of his Maker Is called the law of nature.... This law of nature, being coeval [coexistent] with mankind and dictated by God himself, is of course superior in obligation to any other. It is binding over all the globe, in all countries, and at all times: no human laws are of any validity, if contrary to this; and such of them as are valid derive all their force, and all their authority, mediately or immediately, from this original.... The doctrines thus delivered we call the revealed or divine law and they are to be found only in the holy Scriptures. These precepts, when revealed, are found upon comparison to be really a part of the original law of nature.... Upon these two foundations, the law of nature and the law of revelation, depend all human laws; that is to say, no human laws should be suffered to contradict these."

- Sir William Blackstone: Attorney, Jurist, Political Philosopher, lectured on law, elected to Parliament , chair of Bar, judge in court of Common Pleas, his Commentaries on the Laws of England became the premier legal work used by the Founders and were practically the final word in law for much of America's history.

Quoted From: Barton, David, Original Intent: The Courts, the Constitution, and Religion (Aledo, TX: Wallbuilder Press, 2010) , 223: originally quoted from Blackstone, William, Commentaries on the Laws of England (Philadelphia: Robert Bell, 1771), Vol I, 39, 41-42.

Highlight

Have you ever read the Constitution and wondered “what were the Founders intentions behind this or that phrase?” The US Constitution in the Resources section contains online references to the Federalist Papers – an early work by three founding fathers on the intention of each section of the US Constitution. But, if you are looking for something more lively, you could turn to the records of the continental congress link in the Resources section, under Congressional Records, or Elliot's or Farrand's records of the debates, or read about the intentions in the more personalized correspondence, writings and letters of the founders.

About

Are you wondering “what is Biblical Christian Solutions in Government (BCSIG)”?

In short we are very similar to Founding Father Alexander
Hamilton's Christian Constitutional Society.

Hamilton formed the society to elect people to office who would support the Christian religion, and the US Constitution.

In a similar way our ultimate vision is to advocate for, defend, and advance Biblical ideological values in law, public policy, and culture. We seek to do this through education, lobbying, and as a secondary purpose (and as a primary purpose of a future sponsored sister organization)
through identifying candidates who:

follow Jesus and have a Biblical Christian worldview;

support, with integrity, the Declaration of Independence and the US Constitution; and understand, will apply, and support God's law, word, and purpose as the rightful foundation for the content of all law, government, justice, and liberty.
