Quotes and Realities

Wisdom From God's Word

"Like a bad tooth or a lame foot is reliance on the unfaithful in times of trouble.... If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat; if he is thirsty, give him water to drink. In doing this, you will heap burning coals on his head, and the LORD will reward you.... Like a muddied spring or a polluted well is a righteous man who gives way to the wicked."

- Proverbs 25:19, 21-22, 26 (NIV)

James Madison

"I entirely concur in the propriety of resorting to the sense in which the Constitution was accepted and ratified by the nation. In that sense alone it is the legitimate Constitution. And if that be not the guide in expounding it, there can be no security for a consistent and stable, more than for a faithful, exercise of its powers.... What a metamorphosis would be produced in the code of law if all its ancient phraseology were to be taken in its modern sense."

- James Madison: member of the Continental Congress; delegate to the Constitutional Convention where he signed the federal Constitution; along with Alexander Hamilton and John Jay, he co-authored the Federalist Papers which were instrumental in securing the ratification of the federal Constitution; member of the U.S. House of Representatives where he helped frame the Bill of Rights; Secretary of State under President Thomas Jefferson; elected as the fourth President of the United States.

Quoted from: Barton, David, Original Intent: The Courts, the Constitution, and Religion (Aledo, TX: Wallbuilder Press, 2010), 28: originally quoted from Madison, James, The Writings of James Madison, edited by Hunt, Gillard (New York: G.P. Putnam's Sons, 1910), Vol. IX, 191, to Henry Lee, June 25 1824.

Highlight

Have you ever read the Constitution and wondered “what were the Founders intentions behind this or that phrase?” The US Constitution in the Resources section contains online references to the Federalist Papers – an early work by three founding fathers on the intention of each section of the US Constitution. But, if you are looking for something more lively, you could turn to the records of the continental congress link in the Resources section, under Congressional Records, or Elliot's or Farrand's records of the debates, or read about the intentions in the more personalized correspondence, writings and letters of the founders.

About

Are you wondering “what is Biblical Christian Solutions in Government (BCSIG)”?

In short we are very similar to Founding Father Alexander Hamilton's Christian Constitutional Society.

Hamilton formed the society to elect people to office who would support the Christian religion, and the US Constitution.

In a similar way our ultimate vision is to advocate for, defend, and advance Biblical ideological values in law, public policy, and culture. We seek to do this through education, lobbying, and as a secondary purpose (and as a primary purpose of a future sponsored sister organization) through identifying candidates who:

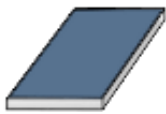

follow Jesus and have a Biblical Christian worldview; support, with integrity, the Declaration of Independence and the US Constitution; and understand, will apply, and support God's law, word, and purpose as the rightful foundation for the content of all law, government, justice, and liberty.

If you are not using a mobile browser, you can access the latest news in the side block.

Because News is RSS syndicated, many times articles that would be more permanent will be published under News, and at a later date be moved into the Articles section.

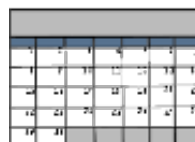

Are you wondering “where did that News article go?” Older News articles are still available in the News Archive.

Resources

Events

Like a good box of tools and a manual can help you understand and then work to accomplish a task, so too the resources in this section can help shed light or give information on a number of issues.

Some links of interest may be:

reading the Bible;

writings of Founding Fathers which, among other things, point out why it was - and is - central to encourage and have the Bible taught as the cornerstone of our society, central for justice and liberty, and why government does not last without God's word and principles, etc.;

you will find early and current records of Congress; and you will find links to other Organizations, with similar goals, and their resources.

Wondering what upcoming events might be in the works? Click the events icon for the event calendar.

If you are not using a mobile browser, you can also access the event list from a miniature version of the event calendar in the side block.

The Events are also RSS syndicated, so you can have the event list on your favorite desktop, device, etc. RSS reader.

Involvement

The involvement section offers opportunities to defend liberty, and advance Biblical Christian solutions in public policy and in the life of our culture.
