Eternal Wisdom And Principles In Government

"I, wisdom, dwell together with prudence; I possess knowledge and discretion. To fear the LORD is to hate evil; I hate pride and arrogance, evil behavior and perverse speech. Counsel and sound judgment are mine; I have understanding and power. By me kings reign and rulers make laws that are just; by me princes govern, and all nobles who rule on earth.<sup>1</sup> I love those who love me, and those who seek me find me. With me are riches and honor, enduring wealth and prosperity. My fruit is better than fine gold; what I yield surpasses choice silver. I walk in the way of righteousness, along the paths of justice, bestowing wealth on those who love me and making their treasuries full. 'The LORD brought me forth as the first of his works, before his deeds of old; I was appointed from eternity, from the beginning, before the world began....' "

<sup>1</sup> Many Hebrew manuscripts and Septuagint; most Hebrew manuscripts and nobles - all righteous rulers

- Proverbs 8:12-23 (NIV)

James Wilson

James Wilson

"All [laws], however, may be arranged in two different classes. 1) Divine. 2) Human.... But it should always be remembered that this law, natural or revealed, made for men or for nations, flows from the same Divine source: it is the law of God.... Human law must rest its authority ultimately upon the authority of that law which is Divine."

- James Wilson: Attorney, Educator, Jurist; born in Scotland, member of the Continental Congress where he signed the Declaration of Independence, member of the Board of War, delegate to the Constitutional Convention where he signed the Federal Constitution, delegate to the State ratification convention for the Federal Constitution, appointed to the U.S. Supreme Court as one of its original Justices by President George Washington, authored much of the Pennsylvania state constitution, first professor of Law in the College of Philadelphia and in the University of Pennsylvania, co-authored with Thomas McKean America's first Commentaries on the Constitution, founded the first organized legal training in America, was one of only six men who signed both the Declaration and the Constitution.

Quoted from: Barton, David, Original Intent: The Courts, the Constitution, and Religion (Aledo, TX: Wallbuilder Press, 2010), 343; originally quoted from Wilson, James, The Works of the Honourable James Wilson, edited by Wilson, Bird (Philadelphia: Lorenzo Press, 1804), Vol. I, 103-105, “Of the General Principles of Law and Obligation.”

Highlight

Have you ever read the Constitution and wondered “what were the Founders intentions behind this or that phrase?” The US Constitution in the Resources section contains online references to the Federalist Papers – an early work by three founding fathers on the intention of each section of the US Constitution. But, if you are looking for something more lively, you could turn to the records of the continental congress link in the Resources section, under Congressional Records, or Elliot's or Farrand's records of the debates, or read about the intentions in the more personalized correspondence, writings and letters of the founders.

About

Are you wondering “what is Biblical Christian Solutions in

Hamilton's Christian Constitutional Society.

Hamilton formed the society to the US Constitution.

In a similar way our ultimate vision is to advocate for, defend, and advance Biblical ideological values in law, public policy, and culture. We seek to do this through follow Jesus and have a Biblical Christian worldview; support, with integrity, the Declaration of Independence and the US Constitution; and understand, will apply, and support God's law, word, and purpose as the rightful foundation for the content of all law, government, justice, and liberty.
